

DAI-ICHI
KARKARIA LIMITED

QUALITY, ENVIRONMENT, HEALTH AND SAFETY POLICY

DAI-ICHI KARKARIA LIMITED, is a specialty chemical company of International repute, located in India, manufacturing and supplying specialty performance chemicals globally, for over 60 years

We strive for business excellence through customer satisfaction by providing innovative products with consistent quality and performance. The company will maintain the highest standards of business ethics and consciously work towards creating, maintaining, ensuring a safe & clean environment.

Environment, Health and Safety protection is a collective responsibility of all employees. All workers, staff, managers, contractors, sub-contractors & transporter must ensure that their actions do not cause harm to the Environment, Health & Safety of themselves and other colleagues.

We are committed to:-

- Achieve utmost customer satisfaction by delivering quality products and services as per national and international standards.
- Continually improve manufacturing processes and technologies & strive for enhancing overall performance through integration of quality, environment and occupational health & safety into our business processes.
- Ensure involvement of relevant interested parties in effective implementation of Integrated Management System & improvement of performance through training and awareness.
- Fulfil all applicable compliance obligations related to products and services, environment, occupational health & safety.
- Provide safe & healthy working environment to all for prevention of injury & ill health.
- Conduct all our operations in a conscious manner to prevent harm to all our employees, contractor's workman, the local public and the environment in general.
- Promote awareness amongst local surrounding community and assist them in preservation of clean environment.
- Support protection of environment, prevention of pollution, elimination of hazard, reduction of OHS risk and improvement through regular work place monitoring, Safety audit, Risk assessment and integration of criteria at planning & procurement stage for new projects, modification/ expansion projects.
- Strive towards greener technologies based on renewable sources of raw materials and improving the overall atom economy for our processes.

MS. S.F. Vakil

Chairperson & Managing Director

Date: - 15.12.2020